APRIL IS CHILD ABUSE PROTECTION MONTH

The Archdiocese of Miami has robustly participated in the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People since its inception over 15 years ago and has been in compliance every year. This can only happen with the dedication of pastors, principals, directors and coordinators of religious education, administration and staff in collaboration with parents and volunteers.

Tips for Protecting Children and the Vulnerable

No one has the right to have access to children. No one, no matter who they are, has an automatic right to be around children or vulnerable adults who are in the care of the Church without proper screening and without following the rules. Volunteering is a privilege that comes with responsibilities.

Common sense is not all that common. Dioceses, schools, parishes, and especially families must educate themselves and others on how to protect children.

ABRIL ES EL MES DE LA PREVENCIÓN DEL ABUSO INFANTIL

La Arquidiócesis de Miami ha participado vigorosamente en la Carta para la Protección de Niños y Jóvenes de la Conferencia de Obispos Católicos de los Estados Unidos desde su creación hace más de 15 años, y ha cumplido con la misma cada año. Esto es posible gracias a la dedicación de párrocos, directores escolares, directores y coordinadores de educación religiosa, administración y personal, en colaboración con padres y voluntarios.

Consejos para Proteger a los Niños y los Vulnerables

Nadie tiene el derecho de tener acceso a los niños. Nadie, sin importar quién sea, tiene el derecho automático de estar cerca de niños o adultos vulnerables bajo el cuidado de la Iglesia sin haber pasado una evaluación adecuada y sin seguir las reglas. El voluntariado es un privilegio que viene con responsabilidades.

El sentido común no es tan común. Las diócesis, escuelas, parroquias y especialmente las familias deben educarse a sí mismas y a los demás sobre cómo proteger a los niños.

Putting On Kindness

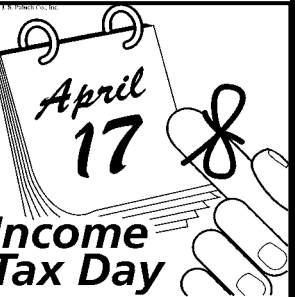

Don't let your character be shaped by the attitude of others around you. If someone is unkind, respond with kindness. If someone is getting on your nerves be patient.

There are times when we must draw healthy boundaries., but let us pray that we use wisdom in doing so. Don't give up on people too quickly.

Keep your eyes on Christ at all times. He is the one leading the dance. He's the one we take our cue from.

BELIEVING IN JESUS CHRIST

Throughout the Easter season, all three of the Sunday readings are taken from the New Testament—the Christian scriptures. Together they explore what it means to believe in Jesus as the Christ, the One who fulfilled the prophecies of the Jewish scriptures.

Today's selections refer to our human weakness, yet they emphasize the forgiveness and peace that are available to those who put their faith in "Jesus Christ the righteous one" (1 John 2:2). In the Acts of the Apostles Peter invites everyone to "repent, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be wiped away" (Acts 3:19). The First Letter of John calls Jesus Christ "expiation for our sins" (1 John 2:2). Finally, in the Gospel Jesus greets the disciples with "Peace" and urges them to preach "repentance, for the forgiveness of sins" (Luke 24:47).
