THE WORD THIS WEEK

FOLLOWING CHRIST

If you've ever had an unpleasant but somewhat amusing practical joke played on you, then you have some understanding of how Jeremiah feels today when he tells God "good one—you duped me." We can almost see him shaking his head with a bit of a rueful smile, but an angry undertone in his voice. In similar fashion, Peter thinks Jesus is "duping" him when Jesus starts to explain that being Messiah means suffering and dying, and being a follower of the Messiah means taking up a cross and doing the same. Jeremiah tries to deny God's will for him by trying to shut up; Peter—who has just been made the foundation of the church—out and out denies the teaching of Jesus, for which he is named "Satan" today. Fortunately for us, Jeremiah comes to realize that to have the word of God placed in your heart means that it will be futile to try and keep silent, even if it means scorn and derision from those around you. Luckily Peter ultimately returned to the faith he professed in last week's Gospel, and came to understand our need as baptized followers of Christ to follow in his way, even when it means following him to our very death.

Special Collection for Hurricane Harvey Relief

Our prayers and hearts go out to the families that have lost loved ones along with those who have lost homes and businesses, and their sense of peace and normalcy due to Hurricane Harvey.

To assist our brothers and sisters in the many areas affected by "Harvey" I am asking each of the 109 Catholic parishes and missions in the Archdiocese of Miami to take up an emergency collection this weekend, September 2nd and 3rd.

The financial donations received from this special collection will help support the humanitarian, infrastructure and recovery efforts by of the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops and help provide pastoral and rebuilding support to the impacted dioceses.

If you are unable to make a donation today, please be generous next weekend in the collection basket and mention Hurricane Harvey in the memo line.

The Archdiocese of Miami cannot accept donations of food, water, clothing, building supplies, or other items.

Thank you for your kindness.
